May 5: Central States/CONA numismatic seminar. This daylong event at Oakstone Academy, our regular meeting place, will feature presentations by four token experts, with a strong emphasis on Civil War and sutler tokens. Seating limited to 60. Advance registration required.

Columbus seminar to spotlight Civil War numismatics

The emphasis will be on tokens, especially Civil War tokens, at the Central States Numismatic Society's Spring Seminar May 5 in suburban Columbus, OH.

CSNS Education Director Ray Lockwood and CONA President Charles Caldwell have put together a program that includes presentations by token experts Norm Bowers, Robert F. Fritsch, Dennis Haskett and Cindy Wibker. Speakers will cover a wide range of exonomia subjects during the daylong event, including Civil war store cards, patriotic tokens and sutler tokens.

The speakers are:

Norm Bowers

Bowers, who started collecting coins as a paper-boy in 1947, has operated two coin shops in Missouri and Illinois. He started collecting Civil War tokens in 1970 and began collecting international bi-metal coins in 1990.

Robert F. Fritsch

Fritsch began collecting coins while stationed in Japan with the Navy. Subsequent assignments in Germany, Scotland, Spain, plus several cruises to the Mediterranean built his core collections of circulating coins of countries visited (currently 28). After retirement, he became interested in medals, tokens, elongated coins, wooden nickels, ancients, Mardi Gras doubloons, ship "challenge coins" and state quarters.

Dennis Haskett

Haskett, an Indiana State Numismatic Association board member, started collecting coins as a child. He has spent several years researching the merchants who issued Civil War store cards in Indiana. He has found advertising for about 130 of them and located biographies for about 100. He is a history buff with a great interest in the Civil War. At one point he had over 2,000 different Civil War tokens, but now specialize in Indiana store cards.

Cindy Wibker

Wibker, a dedicated collector and worker in the hobby for 35 years, is the FUN show convention coordinator. She was secretary of the Civil War Token Society for 12 years and president for two; and served the Token and Medal Society for 25 years in a variety of jobs, including secretary, vice president, president and board member.

The Central Ohio Numismatic Association will host the Spring Seminar in Westerville, Ohio, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Saturday, May 5. The seminar will be held at Oakstone Academy, 900 Club Dr., Westerville, OH.
